“Our ad in the Golf Course Market generated the lead that purchased our course. In this tough market it’s hard to believe that we were able to sell so quickly, and there’s no doubt that the ad was the first step that led to that sale. Best money we ever spent!”

BERT DOVER, FORMER OWNER, SANTA RITA GOLF COURSE

THE GOLF COURSE MARKET IS AN OPEN MARKETPLACE bringing together all parties involved in the buying and selling of golf courses. It includes two primary components: an area within the Marketplace/Classifieds section of Golf Business magazine every month and the website, www.golfcoursemarket.com.

This unique forum allows buyers to discover available properties all over North America. In addition, it is the perfect location for brokers, agents and “FSBOs” to get their message out.

The Services Directory within the Golf Course Market leads buyers and sellers to the knowledgeable individuals and companies who assist during various stages of the buy-sell process.

The Golf Course Market also provides education on buying golf courses, preparing courses for sale and the transaction itself.
